Hamlet To Hold Second Annual Event in the Korner Park

On Saturday, July 21, 2012, the Hamlet of Beavercreek is holding their Craft Fair and Flea Market at the Korner Park. The park is located at the corner of Beavercreek, Kamrath and Leland Roads in the core area.

The first event, held last year, was called a "Rummage Sale," but it was decided to change the name to "Craft Fair and Flea Market" because of the interest by crafters in having booths at the event.

Breakfast and lunch will be available on site and there will be ample parking.

A 10 ft x10 ft space will be $10.00 with no commission to the Hamlet. Participants will provide their own setup beginning at 7:00 a.m. All items must be removed by 5:00 p.m.

If you are interested in having a booth at the event or need more information, please call 503-632-7782.

Event Open To The Public
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

loved one call the Department of Consumer and Business Services for help locating missing life insurance policies that may name them as beneficiaries.

However, tracking down policies can be difficult without paperwork, especially when a family member doesn't have the name of an insurance company. More than 300 companies sell life insurance or annuities in Oregon and there is no central database of names and policies.

To address this problem, the department's Insurance Division is unveiling a new Life Insurance Finder Tool (LIFT) (<https://www4.cbs.state.or.us/exs/ins/lift/>).

This program links those searching for policies with all the companies that sell life insurance/annuities in Oregon. Oregon is among a handful of states to develop a life insurance policy finder tool.

"When people make a family member or friend a life insurance beneficiary, it is an act of care and kindness," Acting Insurance Division Administrator Lou Savage said. "However, many people avoid talking about death or don't make sure their financial records are in order. The result can be that their loved ones do not receive the intended benefits."

"This new tool will make it much easier to find policies that were sold in Oregon," Savage said. "Plus, the search is free through a trustworthy source."

Here's how the Life Insurance Finder Tool (LIFT) works:

1. Searchers complete and print an online form. They notarize the form, attach a copy of the death certificate, and mail all the paperwork to the Insurance Division at the address provided.

2. The division electronically forwards the request to all of the insurers that sell life insurance/annuities in Oregon.

3. Companies have 60 days to search their database and report the outcome as "no policy found," "active," or "inactive." "Pending" means a company hasn't yet searched its database.

4. The person looking for a policy receives a link to a page where the company-by-company results are posted.

For information about how to use this tool, call the division's insurance consumer advocates at 503-947-7984 (Salem area) or 888-877-4894 (toll-free).

"While we hope this tool helps families receive their intended benefits, the best way to ensure the well-being of those you love is to leave good records about your finances and talk with them about what you want to happen when you die," Savage said.

New ORVET Home Loan Products: Low 20-Year Loan Rate And No Origination Fee

The Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs (ODVA) is now offering a wider variety of competitive home mortgage rates, including a 30-year term with a zero percent origination fee to qualified veteran home buyers.

The ORVET Home Loan Program currently offers one of the lowest home loan interest rates available. The 30-year fixed mortgage is 3.75 percent (3.88 APR) and features a zero percent origination fee which may allow for reduced closing costs.

ORVET offers a very competitive short-term 20-year loan at 3.125 percent (3.459 APR) and a 30-year fixed loan at 3.49 percent (3.732 APR). Both offerings carry a 1.375 percent loan origination fee.

A State of Oregon veteran benefit, the ORVET Home Loan Program is separate from the federal VA home loan guaranty program. Even if a veteran has purchased a home using the federal VA program, they may still be eligible for an ORVET home loan.

"These new rate offerings will allow many veterans to take advantage of a great opportunity to buy a home. Our veterans have served our country with honor and distinction," said Jim Willis, Director of the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs. "We must always provide them with the very best that we have to offer."

The ORVET Home Loan is a lifetime benefit for eligible veterans with a maximum loan amount of $417,000 for a single family, owner occupied residence.

Clackamas County Commission Approves Vision, Goals for 20-year Transportation System Plan

The first major step in creating Clackamas County's new 20-year Transportation System Plan (TSP) was taken by the County Board of Commissioners April 29 when they approved a vision, goals and objectives to guide the remainder of the project.

The 18-month TSP update process is being undertaken, as required by law, to review and update plans and policies for various forms of transportation – roads, transit, walking, bicycling, rail, air, freight, waterways and pipelines – in unincorporated Clackamas County. When complete in late 2013, the TSP will specify priority transportation projects for the next 20 years and address how those projects can be funded.

The vision, goals and objectives, which were recommended to the Commission after months of work by the TSP Public Advisory Committee, will be used to guide the work of the public, staff and the Commission in preparing a 20-year plan for transportation policies and projects in unincorporated areas of the county.

Commissioner Jamie Damon stated that the 22-member Public Advisory Committee "is an incredibly committed group of folks from all around the County, with all different perspectives and viewpoints."

TSP Public Advisory Committee Chair, Chips Janger, a resident of the Oak Grove area in unincorporated Clackamas County, told the Commissioners that, "this is the farthest thing from a rubber-stamp committee that you have ever seen."

The approved vision states: Building on the foundation of our existing assets, we envision a well-maintained and designed transportation system that provides safety, flexibility, mobility, accessibility and connectivity for people, goods and services; is tailored to our diverse geographies; and supports future needs and land use plans.

The vision is supported by six goals -- Sustainable, Local Businesses and Jobs, Livable and Local, Safety and Health, Equity and Fiscally Responsible -- each with specific objectives to be taken into consideration throughout the update process.

More information about the TSP update process, upcoming events and opportunities to give input can be found on the project website at www.clackamascountytsp.com.

Over 600 Pounds Of Prescription Drugs Dropped Off At Annual Clackamas County Sheriff's Office Drug Turn-In

On Saturday, April 28, 2012, at three locations in Clackamas County, citizens were encouraged to drop off old and unused prescription drugs for safe disposal.

This was an annual event called the "National Prescription Drug Take-Back Day" hosted by the DEA and the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office.

The three locations, Happy Valley City Hall, the Wilsonville Police Department, and the Clackamas County Public Safety Training Center accepted 648 pounds of prescription drugs from citizens.

Flushing drugs into the water system is hazardous so this is a safe way to keep medications out of the home and out of the water supply.

(NVFC), and the National Association of State Fire Marshals to announce the theme for the May 6-12, 2012, Arson Awareness Week (AAW): Prevent Youth Firesetting.

This year's theme is intended to raise public awareness of the collaborative effort with fire and emergency service departments, law enforcement, mental health, social services, schools, and juvenile justice to help reduce the incidents of youth misusing fire.

Oregon data shows there were more than 500 reported youth set fires in 2010-2011. The majority of these fires were started by youths from 10-15 years of age.

"Most people don't realize the serious consequences of youth-set fire behavior," said Oregon Chief Deputy State Marshal Jim Walker. "Whether it's a young child misusing a cigarette lighter or a teen setting a fire for the fun of it, these behaviors are risky, can be deadly, and result in thousands of dollars in property loss."

Parents need to be aware they may be held financially responsible for property damage or injuries resulting from a youth-set fire. Youths should be aware they could be cited with a criminal offense for setting an intentional fire (e.g. arson or reckless burning) and face serious legal, financial, and emotional consequences.

Youths who do not understand the power of fire can be seriously burned.

Here are some fire safety tips for parents/caregivers:

- * If your teens have a fascination with fire, check their bedroom for matches, lighters, flammable liquids, fireworks, and other devices.
- * Monitor the internet sites your teen frequents.
- * If your teen burns candles or incense, be sure to set clear rules that these items must be extinguished before leaving the room or going to bed.
- * Keep matches and lighters out of sight and reach of young children at all times.
- * Have working smoke alarms in your home and practice a home escape plan.

If you are concerned because your child repeatedly sets fires, contact your local fire department now, before tragedy occurs. Oregon has an effective, well-developed network of concerned firefighters, law enforcement officers, and counselors.

On Saturday, June 2, 2012, the Beavercreek Grange will host their last "All You Can Eat" Breakfast until the first Saturday in October.

The Grange doesn't hold the breakfasts in the summer months so that the members can spend the summer with family and friends. But never fear... they will be back on Saturday, October 6, 2012, so mark your calendar!

Where else can you go and get all the eggs, sausage, hash browns, pancakes, coffee, juice and all the necessary condiments along with the smiling faces of the members of the Grange... and all for only $5.00. What a bargain!

The breakfasts are held to raise money to remodel and do all the repairs needed to the building.

The Beavercreek Grange has been in constant use since its inception in 1896. It has been and continues to be an invaluable asset to our community and deeply involved with the history of our area for over 115 years.

Clackamas County Sheriff's Office Sergeant Being Investigated By Clark County Sheriff's Office For Assault

On May 3, 2012, at about 1:30 p.m., Steve Hyson, a sergeant with the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office, was arrested on a warrant by the Clark County Sheriff's Office (Washington) concerning an allegation of assault that occurred on May 1. He was taken into custody and charged with Assault II.

Steps Seniors Should Take To Prevent Falls

Falling is the leading cause of injury-related deaths among older Americans

For those 65 and older, falling can be fatal; in fact, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) reports that falls are the leading cause of injury-related deaths among this age group, and some 40 percent of seniors fall at least once each year. Additionally, one in four who sustains a hip fracture from a fall will die within a year, and another 50 percent will never return to their pre-fall level of mobility.

According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Administration on Aging (AoA), one in every eight Americans is now 65 or older. "This means that a sizeable segment of the population is at risk for falling," says Jonathan Scheff, M.D., chief medical officer for Health Net, Inc. "For the elderly," he adds, "falls often lead to a downward health spiral, so the key is taking steps to prevent falls in the first place. Older Americans are living longer than ever, and our goal at Health Net is to help them avoid debilitating injuries and enjoy their golden years."

Home Fall-Prevention Checklist

The National Safety Council notes that - during any given week - more than 30,000 Americans over the age of 65 are seriously injured by falling, and the majority of those falls occur at home. "These are largely preventable injuries," explains Scheff, "so we're urging seniors to follow the AoA's recommendations for preventing falls at home." These recommendations include:

- * Install handrails on both sides of any stairways
- * Secure all throw rugs and area rugs with tacks, nonskid pads, or double-sided rug tape
- * Use non-skid floor wax
- * Remove soap buildup in tubs and showers
- * Place non-slip strips in tub and shower; secure bathmats with double-sided tape
- * Install adjustable-height showerheads
- * Mount grab bars on both sides of toilet, as well as on bath and shower walls
- * Keep items used frequently within easy reach to eliminate the need for a step stool
- * Plug nightlights in hallways, bedrooms, bathrooms and stairways
- * Install light switches at the top and bottom of stairs
- * Place a lamp and telephone near your bed
- * Remove any clutter from hallways and other high-traffic areas.

Wellness Fall-Prevention Checklist

As Scheff points out, "In addition to making their homes as fall-proof as possible, older Americans also can take steps that will both improve wellness and reduce the risk of falling." Toward this end, the CDC suggests that seniors:

- * Exercise regularly, because lack of exercise leads to weakness, which in turn increases the chances of falling; exercises that improve balance - such as yoga and Tai chi - are especially beneficial
- * Review with your health-care provider the medications - both over-the-counter and prescription - that you're currently taking to determine if any are causing significant drowsiness or disorientation, as these conditions increase the risk of falling

- * Have your vision checked regularly to detect conditions - such as glaucoma or cataracts - that could impair vision and possibly cause a fall
- * those who wear glasses also should have annual vision tests.

Scheff additionally suggests that seniors contact their health plan and ask if they offer fall-prevention assistance. "At Health Net," he says, "our Medicare Advantage members can be referred to a health coach who will assess their risk of falling and then help them take steps designed to prevent falls."

June 5 - 2:15 – 3:15 Clarkes Gym

Calling all kids...get your talent ready to share for our annual Talent Show that will be held on Tuesday, June 5 at 2:15 pm. If there are students in the same act from more than one class, we will call you when the time is right. We are looking for a wide variety of acts that are well rehearsed.

In addition to the "acts" we are also looking for an announcer or MC to help announce the show. We will be looking for students to audition for this position by reading a paragraph introduction...with lots of expression!

I am still looking for a few adult volunteers to help with the judging. Ideally, it would be someone who could be at both audition days, but we would welcome anyone who can give some time to help. Please let Mrs. Botsford know if you are able or willing to help as a talent show judge.

Clackamas Fire District #1 Founding Member of New Urban Search & Rescue

Urban Search & Rescue is actually a new name for many of the specialty rescue services that have been around for years. It includes collapse, confine space, trench, vertical and vehicle/machine rescue.

Combining these different rescue disciplines allows for the rescue technicians to build upon the common elements of each.

For over 10 years Urban Search & Rescue (USAR) as a specialty has grown and developed across the nation. USAR teams from across the country have responded to and provided aid in such disasters such as the collapse of the World Trade Center towers, the Murrah Federal Building bombing in Oklahoma City and the devastating storms that have struck the East Coast.

Realizing the need for additional preparation in the event of a large scale disaster, such as an earthquake, the office of the Oregon State Fire Marshal has orchestrated a state-wide response effort. This multi-agency effort includes the Oregon Department of Transportation, the Oregon Army National Guard and several fire service providers. Together they provide trained technical rescue technicians along with an extensive collection of tools and equipment anywhere in Oregon around the clock, seven days a week.

Clackamas Fire District #1 is proud to be a founding member of the Oregon USAR Task Force.

Fluoride Survey Results

Thank you to all who participated in the fluoride survey. The feedback was very helpful. Two patterns were quite evident:

1. Most families who participated in the survey would participate in the fluoride program (65%).

2. There were several comments about concerns around use of school personnel and instructional time being used to address dental hygiene issues. I share these concerns.

In weighing the benefits, and considering the concerns, I am asking that if this is something we value as a school community, we support it as a school community. I am looking for three to five volunteers who would operate the logistics of this program. This would likely look like coming in one morning per week for 30-40 minutes and getting the fluoride materials ready for distribution to classes. Please let me know if you would be able and willing to take on the operation of this project or would like more information about the commitment.

Thank You!

Class Placement

Believe it or not, this year is quickly wrapping up and we are mapping out how the 2012-2013 school year will look. One of the pieces to that is developing the tentative drafts of class rosters for the next school year. As we carefully make our student placements for the new school year, the following factors are considered:

- * Classroom balance by gender, achievement levels, and special education/language needs
- * The student's learning style (in what learning environment does the child perform best.)
- * Students that need to be separated from each other

- * Behavioral characteristics of students (i.e. positive class leaders, discipline issues)
- * Other considerations presented by parents or staff members.

Class placements will be determined by a team consisting of the principal, intervention specialist, and teaching staff. If you would like, you may fill out a "Parent Input" form indicating additional student characteristics or factors that will be used as a factor in placing children. The form is available on the Carus website, attached to this email or may be picked up at the school office. All forms must be returned by Friday, June 1st. Specific requests for individual teachers will not be accepted.

Lunch Money Information

Students may no longer charge lunch on negative account balances.

As the school year winds down, there are always questions concerning balances in student lunch accounts. Any money remaining in your child's account will automatically carry over to the next school year unless you send a written request for a refund. If you have a sixth grader moving to the middle school, their balance will be forwarded. Please be aware that students will no longer be permitted to charge meals for the remainder of this school year.

If you are concerned that your child may have a negative account balance, please call the office 503- 263-7190, we have a current negative account balance list.

Clackamas County to Close Barlow Road May 29-Oct. 1 For Road and Bridge Repairs

Clackamas County will close Barlow Road at Rock Creek (Long Bridge) from Tuesday, May 29, through Monday, Oct. 1, 2012 for road and bridge repairs.

The 24-hour-a-day closure, which will extend from Highway 211 to Bond Road, is needed to repair the failing northbound lane and guardrail, replace two bridge timber pile caps and rehabilitate the stream bank.

Because one part of the project will require jacking up the bridge's superstructure, and another part will be rebuilding the failing northbound lane, the work zone will be completely closed to all traffic. Posted detour signs will direct traffic around the closure on nearby roads.

For more information and project updates, go to <http://www.clackamas.us/roads/>.

Boring Station Trailhead Park Formally Opened May 19

A ceremony to mark the completion of Boring Station Trailhead Park was held Saturday, May 19 at the newly-completed park in downtown Boring. A grand opening and ribbon cutting ceremony were scheduled for 11 a.m. The event was hosted by the Friends of Boring Station

Trailhead Park.

Construction on the park, located near the intersection of SR 212 and Richey Road, began in September 2011 as part of a larger concept plan to convert the abandoned stretch of railroad into a regional trailhead, providing a welcoming destination along the 21.5 mile Springwater Corridor regional Trail which extends from downtown Boring to the Willamette River in Portland.

Supporters and contributors to the project included: The residents and business community of Boring; The Friends organization; Boring-Damascus Grange, Boring CPO, cities of Portland, Gresham, Damascus, Sandy and Estacada; Metro, the State of Oregon and Clackamas County Parks.

The park features a new restroom building, turf areas, bicycle racks, beautiful trees, parking for 30 vehicles and a paved connection to the Springwater Trail. Construction was supported by Metro's 2006 natural areas bond measure, which included funding for communities across the region to invest in nature close to home.

Rose City Astronomers to View Night Skies at Haggart Observatory

Clackamas Community College and the Rose City Astronomers have entered into a unique partnership to ensure that the Haggart Observatory continues to serve the college and the general public. The local non-profit amateur astronomy club has agreed to help maintain the observatory and open it for periodic public access.

Rose City Astronomers (RCA) is a nonprofit volunteer club dedicated to promoting the enjoyment and education of astronomy to both members and the public. It is one of the largest amateur astronomy clubs in the country and conducts public star parties throughout the year, along with regular observing events for its members.

The Haggart Observatory is named for Harold Haggart, a long-time resident of the Oregon City area and a one-time professional telescope builder. As part of his life-long interest in astronomy, he constructed a personal observatory attached to his residence, which housed a sophisticated telescope of his own design and making. His widow Darcy Haggart donated the hand-crafted dome to the ELC (Environmental Learning center) in the late 1980s. The observatory opened to the public in 1989.

In recent years the Haggart Observatory has been maintained by a group of volunteers and opened to the public on clear Saturday nights. The observatory offers views of the night skies through 24-inch and 13-inch Newtonian reflector telescopes.

"This agreement will open the door to stargazers in the metro area to view distant galaxies and star clusters through a powerful telescope at this unique local resource," said Bill Briare, dean of Arts and Science at the college.

The Rose City Astronomers plan to begin offering regular public viewings at the observatory this summer. The club will be charged a nominal fee for use of the observatory by its members, in return for maintaining the observatory and conducting periodic star parties.

"Our club is excited about the opportunity to preserve this great community resource and make it available for our members to explore the universe from such a convenient location," said David Nemo, director of observing sites for RCA.

Carus Kids Receive "Reading is an Investment" Awards

Five Carus students were each awarded a $500 college scholarship savings account through the Oregon State Treasury Department. Each year students in grades K-5 are eligible to enter the program called "Reading is an Investment," hosted by the Treasury Department. Students track the number of minutes read between October and March, read at least 3 recommended titles about money matters, and enter the contest online. State-wide, more than 2,300 students entered the contest this year. Ten winners are selected randomly by drawing from each of the five congressional districts.

At Carus, this optional program is promoted through the library. Books about "money matters" are read aloud to classes and students are encouraged to participate if they wish. Classroom teachers provide tracking systems to monitor progress and dedicated parent helpers assist with entering students as they reach their reading goals.

Treasurer, Ted Wheeler, made a personal visit to Carus on Wednesday, May 9th to acknowledge the students. He answered questions from the classes about his position, his education, and interests. A lively discussion took place about the value of reading and how those skills are applied in our lives. Mr. Wheeler presented the five winners with bright yellow drawstring bags and brought bracelets and bookmarks for everyone.

gon City. The van's driver was cited by OSP for Failure to Yield to a Bicyclist.

According to Trooper Nigel Schnackenberg, on May 5, 2012 at approximately 5:00 p.m. a bicycle ridden by RUDY J. DUDLESTON, age 22, from Portland, was southbound on the east side sidewalk of Highway 99E approaching the 12th Street intersection. A 2000 Dodge van driven by PETER F. PETERSON, age 45, from West Linn, was stopped at a red light on 12th Street then turned right to go northbound on Highway 99E. Unknown to the van's driver, it struck the bicyclist crossing the intersection using the crosswalk.

PETERSON noted something odd about how his van was handling so he pulled to the shoulder. After stopping, onlookers brought it to his attention that he had struck and dragged the bicyclist.

DUDLESTON was transported by ambulance to Oregon Health & Sciences University with serious injuries. He was wearing a helmet.

OSP was assisted at the scene by Oregon City Police Department and Clackamas Fire District #1.

Beavercreek Culinary Writer Earns Top Honors

Veteran author recognized in first Canada ceremony

Bobbie Hasselbring, who lives and works in Beavercreek, has earned the top spot in Canada's first Culinary Journalism Awards, co-sponsored by the Canadian Tourism Commission and Food Day Canada.

The veteran food and travel writer was honored recently at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco during Canada Media Marketplace, Canada's tourism event for journalists.

Hasselbring was presented with a plaque and a check for $1,000 for "Best Writing in Any Media" for her story "A Taste of the Garden," which appeared on her food/travel website realfoodtraveler.com.

Anita Stewart, an expert on Canadian cuisine, author of 14 food-related books, and the founder of Food Day Canada, said of Hasselbring's winning entry, "Bobbie wrote lyrically about the Les Jardins de Metis (Maritime Québec's Reford Gardens).

"Taste of the Garden" is an excellent history of Reford Gardens and Bobbie provided an in-depth discussion of the food and the chef's culinary philosophy. In both words and images, she expertly captured its spectacular beauty."

Another judge wrote, "(After reading Bobbie's story), I'm fantasizing about cooking in the kitchen."

The competition, open to journalists writing about Canada's culinary scene for American audiences, drew dozens of entries from journalists. The judging panel included some of Canada's top culinary literary figures, including Stewart, Elizabeth Baird, cookbook author and former Executive Food Editor of Canadian Living Magazine and Alison Bell, a food educator and chef at David Thompson Secondary School in Invermere, British Columbia.

Hasselbring, is the author of dozens of articles and books and has written for Northwest Palate, Northwest Travel, Via, Motorhome Magazine and Home & Away.

"The writers who submitted work for this competition are the best in the business so I am really surprised and deeply honored to be the first to receive Canada's Culinary Journalism Award," Hasselbring said. "Canada has not traditionally been seen as a food destination, but it should be. The country has some wonderful culinary traditions and his chefs and food producers are doing some amazing things with food all over Canada. It's a great privilege to be able to tell the world about Canada's culinary gifts." Originally

Highway 213 Jughandle Project May 21 Construction Update

Brought to you by the City of Oregon City

Work to affect left turns from northbound I-205 off-ramp

Beginning May 22, the contractor will begin construction of a new signage structure that will span Highway 213 near the northbound I-205 on/off-ramps. To install the footings for the new structure, the contractor will periodically close the left turn lane on the northbound I-205 off-ramp between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. and between 8 p.m. and 5:30 a.m. A flagger will be stationed at the off-ramp during the daytime hours to allow left-turning vehicles to pass. Motorists turning right from the northbound I-205 off-ramp will not be affected.

The periodic closures of the left turn lane are expected to begin on May 22 and may continue for 2 to 3 weeks. Motorists traveling from the northbound I-205 off-ramp to the area north of I-205 (High Rocks, Tri-City Water Pollution Control Plant, S Pope Lane) between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. should expect delays of up to 15 minutes on the off-ramp. When the lane closure is in effect during the evening hours, all motorists are encouraged to turn right from the off-ramp as delays for the left turning movement may be extensive.

Non-Injury Log Truck Rollover Crash Hwy 211 North of Colton

on Highway 211 near milepost 24 negotiating a left curve. The trailer went off the road onto the soft shoulder and rolled, dumping logs across the highway. KNOBF was not injured.

Highway 211 at the crash scene was closed both directions while the logging company and ODOT cleared the logs. It was re-opened about 3:20 p.m.

KNOBF was cited by OSP for Failure to Maintain a Lane of Travel.

OSP troopers were assisted at the scene by Clackamas County Sheriff's Office, Colton Fire Department, and ODOT.

Awards from 2004-2008.

The site also has a popular 2 3/4-mile perimeter hiking trail that provides a scenic and enjoyable recreation experience. In 2010, the county also completed a 3,600-square foot on-site events center to host tournaments, weddings, receptions and a large variety of special events.

The event schedule includes an 11 a.m. reception, scheduled speakers and presentations at 11:30 a.m., and refreshments and activities from noon to 1 p.m.

Stone Creek Golf Club is located at 14603 S. Stoneridge Drive, Oregon City, Oregon. For more information on the event or a tee time, call Stone Creek Golf Club at 503-518-4653. Visit www.stonecreekgolfclub.net.

My How We've Grown! BCT Hosts 9th Annual Backyard Bash

Beaver Creek Cooperative Telephone Company (BCT) is pleased to sponsor the 9th annual Backyard Bash on Saturday, July 14, 2012. This family fun-filled event will be held in BCT's very own backyard, located at 15223 S. Henrici Road in Oregon City from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

If you haven't been or it's been awhile, come and see all the changes. The Backyard Bash has been improving over the years, starting out in 2004 with a 3-hour summertime bash on a Thursday night that raised $2,266. Now the Backyard Bash is a 6-hour event with last year raising over $8,000 for eight local non-profits! This year all the proceeds will be divided up amongst the following charities: Clackamas Community College Foundation, Forest Forever, Guide Dogs for the Blind, Project Start Right, Father's Heart Street Ministries, The Angels in the Outfield, and Whispering Hope Therapeutic Riding. To learn more about these individual charities please go to bctelco.com and click on our Event Calendar listed under the Community tab. From there check out the charity links on July 14th for the Backyard Bash.

BCT's Backyard Bash is a popular fundraising event enjoyed by the community, neighbors and BCT's staff. Bring the kids by for games, inflatables, face painting and new this year a trout pond! Adults will have a chance to win some great prizes at Bingo, hourly raffle drawings and two silent auctions from 1-3:30 p.m. and from 4:30-6:00 p.m.

A wide variety of food will be available, along with the ability to purchase wine by the glass from our Oregon City neighbors, Forest Edge Vineyard and King's Raven Winery and then sit back and enjoy the entertainment including dance performances by Maralee's Dance Production.

This has become the event of the year. Don't miss out!
