The consultant team and staff have gathered your comments, reviewed the adopted plan, provided initial recommendations on the proposed changes needed to adopt zoning for the area and are hard at work getting the draft code and draft zoning map ready to share with the public. Redlined versions of the code and proposed map have been uploaded to the project page (<https://bit.ly/2ISaYXe>).

New Name?

One issue that came up over and over again in public outreach conversations and public comments this winter and spring was a concern that the name of the concept plan area was geographically confusing and was being confused with the Hamlet of Beavercreek. One way to lessen this concern is to potentially begin referring to the area with a new name as part of the code amendment project. Please click on the following link and send us your concept plan renaming ideas (<https://bit.ly/2PDxVOs>). Some initial ideas include Thimble Creek, East Caufield, Loder Road, SE Industrial (Oregon City), Two Creeks, and Thayer Greens.

Beavercreek Road Concept Plan Project- Zoning and Code Amendments The Beavercreek Road Concept Plan (BRCP) is a guide to the creation of a complete and sustainable neighborhood in southeast Oregon City. The acknowledged BRCP provides a framework for urbanization of 453 acres within the urban growth boundary including a diverse mix of uses (an employment campus north of Loder Road, mixed-use districts along Beavercreek Road, and two mixed-use neighborhoods), all woven together by open space, trails, a network of green streets, and sustainable development practices. This spring and summer, the City of Oregon City will embark on a process to amend the Comprehensive Plan Map, Zoning Map and Oregon City Municipal Code (OCMC) to allow planned housing, employment and mixed-use development within the Concept Plan Area. ## Homebuyer Scam on the Rise in Oregon

BBB Northwest + Pacific warns of a growing scam targeting would-be homebuyers. Here's how the scam works: First, scammers gain access to a real estate agents' email and monitor communications. Next, they use a phishing scheme confirming or suggesting last minute wiring changes to divert closing costs and down payments to a fraudulent account.

Mortgage phishing scams such as this are on the rise. In fact, they rose a staggering 1,100% between 2015 and 2017, according to Consumer Protection Bureau (CPB). So far this year, BBB NWP has received more than 100 real estate transaction complaints. A quarter of these in Oregon alone. And, last year, northwest consumers reported losing over $30,000 to phishing scams.

"When closing on a home, it's always a good idea to confirm final financial transactions by calling advisors directly and not just trusting an email, especially if there's last minute changes," advises Danielle Kane, BBB Northwest + Pacific marketplace manager. If the money has already been sent, act quickly by calling your bank or the wire transfer company and asking that the payment be recalled.

Here are a few additional steps homebuyers can take to help avoid mortgage phishing scams: Do NOT email financial information; do NOT use free WiFi networks while conducting financial business; and never click on links or use unfamiliar phone numbers in

New Interactive Maps for Climbers

The U.S. Department of the Interior's Bureau of Land Management (BLM) has released a series of interactive online maps designed to promote climbing and other recreational opportunities on BLM-managed public lands. They allow individuals to easily plan exciting climbing experiences at sites around the western United States. Now climbers can pull information about specific BLM-managed climbing areas through a centralized online tool while on the go. The maps, available at <https://arcg.is/1SP18f>, include useful site information such as photos, season of use, area characteristics, and difficulty levels. Visitors can also find a number of nearby attractions for each climbing site.

The BLM invites the public to visit one or more of the featured climbing destinations in Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, and Wyoming. The climbing area maps can be found at <https://arcg.is/1SP18f>.

Life Jacket Giveaway July 6

On July 5, 2013, Meagan O'Meara tragically drowned while rafting with friends. Meg's Moments for Life Jackets was formed by her parents to give away free life jackets every year at Barton Park to help save lives. In 2017, one of the free jackets helped save the life of a person who fell off a float and got sucked underneath because it was losing air. Our local Clackamas Emergency Services Foundation supports Meg's Moments so they can purchase and give away jackets each year. Get one at Barton Park starting 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 6.

Wildfire Season: Know Evacuation Levels

Parts of Oregon are already heading into wildfire season and given the serious season that Oregon, and other parts of the West Coast, experienced last year, Oregon's Office of Emergency Management offers an important reminder about evacuation levels. The statewide "Ready, Set, Go" system is used to notify communities that they are facing a threat and are used for floods, fires and other hazards.

Level 1 Evacuation means "BE READY" for potential evacuation. Residents should be aware of the danger that exists in their area, monitor emergency services websites and local media outlets for information. This is the time for preparation and precautionary movement of persons with special needs, mobile property and (under certain circumstances) pets and livestock. If conditions worsen, emergency services personnel may contact you via an emergency notification system.

Level 2 Evacuation means "BE SET" to evacuate. You should be ready to leave at a moment's notice as this level indicates there is significant danger to your area, and residents should either voluntarily relocate to a shelter or with family/friends outside of the affected area. Residents may have time to gather necessary items, but doing so is at their own risk.

Level 3 Evacuation means "GO" Evacuate NOW — leave immediately! Danger to your area is current or imminent, and you should evacuate immediately. If you choose to ignore this advisement, you must understand that emergency services may not be available to assist you further. DO NOT delay leaving to gather any belongings or make efforts to protect your home.

How to Avoid Utility Fraud

The weather is heating up, and your utility bills will likely rise with the temperatures this summer. This is a good time for us to give you a reminder about what to expect – and not expect – from your regional power provider when it comes to those big bills. One very common scam is for a person or small business to receive a message from a fraudster claiming to be from a utility. They claim you are way behind on your bill, and you have a very short period of time – maybe an hour or less – to pay up. If you do not, they will shut off your power.

They will often tell you that you can rectify the situation with a quick payment, preferably by gift card. They will demand that you get the card, call them back and read the card number and PIN to them quickly. Once done, they can empty that card out in minutes. The card is like cash – once it is gone, it is almost always gone for good.

Here's how to protect yourself:

- * If someone claims to be from a utility threatening to disconnect you, tell the person you are going to hang up and call customer service back. Look for the real number on a recent bill or on the company's webpage. Do not use whatever number the person gives.

- * Know that no legitimate utility will give you a single notice before shut-off, particularly by phone or text.

- * No legitimate utility will demand gift cards as payment.

- * Most utilities will work with you for payments if you give them a call.

If you have been victimized by this online scam or any other cyber fraud, be sure to report it to the FBI's Internet Crime

Veteran Volunteer Program. The Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs is seeking volunteers to work with veterans in Clackamas, Deschutes and Polk counties who may not be aware of the state, county and federal benefits they qualify for or how to access them. It's part of the brand-new Veteran Volunteer Program, the first-ever statewide volunteer program working with the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs and its partners to help connect veterans with their earned benefits, which can provide needed financial support, health care and other long-term care needs.

Volunteers will work closely with the state's veteran volunteer coordinator and certified veteran service officers in each county to locate veterans in long-term care facilities who may need assistance accessing their benefits. Veterans over the age of 65 represent approximately half of the state's veteran population. The program is currently being piloted in Clackamas, Deschutes and Polk counties, but will eventually be rolled out statewide. Prospective volunteers do not have to reside in Clackamas, Deschutes or Polk County as long as they have the ability to travel for their volunteer duties and training.

The program is open to anyone 18 years or older. Anyone who enjoys working with veterans and the aging population is encouraged to apply. For more information, please visit oregonvetvolunteer.com or contact Veteran Volunteer Coordinator Mark Newell at 503-373-2057 or veteranvolunteer@odva.state.or.us.

If you are passionate about helping others, empathetic, a good listener, and just want to help people, we've got a great volunteer position for you. Victim Advocates have the unique privilege of providing crisis intervention and follow-up support to people who are experiencing trauma caused by crime. Advocates respond to hospitals and police stations, keep victims informed of their case status, accompany victims to court (as needed), and support them in exercising their rights under Oregon law. Volunteer trainings will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, starting in February. More information on the program can be found at www.bit.ly/ClackCoVictimAdvocate. ## Liberty and Peace

A Poem by Phillis Wheatley, Published 1784

LO! Freedom comes. Th' prescient Muse
foretold,
All Eyes th' accomplish'd Prophecy behold:
Her Port describ'd, "She moves divinely fair,
"Olive and Laurel bind her golden Hair."
She, the bright Progeny of Heaven,
descends,
And every Grace her sovereign Step attends;
For now kind Heaven, indulgent to our Prayer,
In smiling Peace resolves the Din of War.
Fix'd in Columbia her illustrious Line,
And bids in thee her future Councils shine.
To every Realm her Portals open'd wide,
Receives from each the full commercial Tide.
Each Art and Science now with rising
Charms
Th' expanding Heart with Emulation warms.
E'en great Britannia sees with dread
Surprize,
And from the dazzling Splendor turns her Eyes!
Britain, whose Navies swept th' Atlantic o'er,
And Thunder sent to every distant Shore;
E'en thou, in Manners cruel as thou art,
The Sword resign'd, resume the friendly
Part!
For Galia's Power espous'd Columbia's
Cause,
And new-born Rome shall give Britannia
Law,
Nor unremember'd in the grateful Strain,
Shall princely Louis' friendly Deeds remain;
The generous Prince th' impending
Vengeance eye's,
Sees the fierce Wrong, and to the rescue flies.
Perish that Thirst of boundless Power, that drew
On Albion's Head the Curse to Tyrants due.
But thou appeas'd submit to Heaven's decree,
That bids this Realm of Freedom rival thee!
Now sheathe the Sword that bade the Brave
attone
With guiltless Blood for Madness not their own.

Sent from th' Enjoyment of their native
Shore
Ill-fated – never to behold her more!
From every Kingdom on Europa's Coast
Throng'd various Troops, their Glory,
Strength and Boast.
With heart-felt pity fair Hibernia saw
Columbia menac'd by the Tyrant's Law:
On hostile Fields fraternal Arms engage,
And mutual Deaths, all dealt with mutual
Rage:
The Muse's Ear hears mother Earth deplore
Her ample Surface smok'd with kindred
Gore:
The hostile Field destroys the social Ties,
And every-lasting Slumber seals their Eyes.
Columbia mourns, the haughty Foes deride,
Her Treasures plunder'd, and her Towns
destroy'd:
Witness how Charlestown's curling Smokes
arise,
In sable Columns to the clouded Skies!
The ample Dome, high-wrought with curious Toil,
In one sad Hour the savage Troops despoil.
Descending Peace and Power of War
confounds;
From every Tongue celestial Peace
resounds:
As for the East th' illustrious King of Day,
With rising Radiance drives the Shades
away,
So Freedom comes array'd with Charms
divine,
And in her Train Commerce and Plenty shine.
Britannia owns her Independent Reign,
Hibernia, Scotia, and the Realms of Spain;
And great Germania's ample Coast admires
The generous Spirit that Columbia fires.
Auspicious Heaven shall fill with fav'ring
Gales,
Where e'er Columbia spreads her swelling
Sails:
To every Realm shall Peace her Charms
display,
And Heavenly Freedom spread her golden
Ray.

Independence Day Facts & Trivia

Q: What historical event do Americans celebrate on the Fourth of July?

A: Formal adoption of the Declaration of Independence. On July 2, 1776, the Continental Congress voted to approve a motion by Virginia to separate from Great Britain. Two days later, the declaration proclaiming the independence of the United States of America from Great Britain and its king was formally adopted by 12 Colonies.

Q: How many people were living in the United States of America on July 4, 1776?

A: The Census Bureau estimates that 2.5 million people were living in the U.S. at that time.

Q: Who was the first person to sign the Declaration of Independence?

A: John Hancock. He made his mark in the center and it's the largest signature on the document, likely because he was President of Congress at the time, according to the National Archives. His bold signature is the reason people use the phrase "put your John Hancock" when referring to signing your name.

Q: Who was the heroine of the Battle of Cowpens?

A: Catherine Moore Barry. In 1781, General Morgan appealed to her for help since she knew the land so well. Barry rounded up the much-needed local Patriots to join Morgan's troops and helped defeat General Cornwallis. She became known as the heroine of the Battle of Cowpens.

Q: On which date did Congress vote for independence from Great Britain?

A: July 2, 1776. Although the document was dated July 4, congress actually voted for independence from Great Britain two days prior on July 2.

Q: Who helped defend Fort Washington from 4,000 attacking troops under British command?

A: In 1776, Margaret Corbin and her husband helped defend Fort Washington from 4,000 attacking troops under British command. When her husband fell, Corbin took his place at his cannon and continued firing until she became seriously wounded. She was the first woman in U.S. history to receive a pension from Congress for military service.

Q: Who was the main author of the Declaration of Independence?

A: Thomas Jefferson. Four others were also on the committee: Roger Sherman, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, and Robert Livingston.

Q: How many miles did Sybil Ludington ride to warn troops of a pending British attack?

A: 40 miles. On April 26, 1777, Sybil Ludington rode her horse Star through the night in Putnam County, New York to warn approximately 400 militiamen under her father's command that British troops were planning to attack Danbury, Connecticut, where the Continental Army had a supply depot. On her way to gather her father's troops, she warned the people of Danbury.

Q: How did George Washington help troops celebrate on July 4, 1778?

A: U.S. soldiers got a special treat - a double ration of rum.

Q: When were fireworks first used in an official Fourth of July celebration?

A: 1777. Congress authorized using fireworks to help mark the first anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. The celebration, which took place in Philadelphia, also included bonfires and bells.
